

Udaan
Skilling & Training Institute
GOVERNMENT APPROVED CENTER
ISO 29993:2017

Ward Boy / Hospital Attendant

A Ward Boy or Hospital Attendant looks after the needs and wants of patients under their care. They maintain patient hygiene by providing bed-pans, baths, bandage redressing and such activities. They are also expected to help with basic jobs like taking patient temperature, giving medicine, serving meals and such activities. Ward boys also have to maintain log books, patient books and report any changes they notice within the patient to the attending doctor.

Highlights

- MIN QUALIFICATION :- 10TH (SSC) & ABOVE
- COURSE DURATION :- 1 YEARS
- CERTIFICATION FROM :- B.S.S/ N.C.V.T.E/
N.S.D.C/ UDAAN
- JOB SECTORS :-HOSPITAL & MANY MORE

Responsibilities

- Provide assistance to patients for maintenance of hygiene and related activities
- Providing patients with meals on time
- Dealing with patients' request
- Following hospital's rules and operating procedures
- Making all facilities and help available to patients under their care
- Helping nursing and medical staff when required
- Organising medicines, logs and reports of patients
- Making sure that all possible comforts for patients are looked after